Biography

Francesca Collevecchio is Researcher of Corporate Governance at SDA Bocconi School of Management. She is also a Teaching Assistant for the Management and Corporate Governance courses at Università Bocconi.

At SDA Bocconi, Francesca is also a researcher at the Corporate Governance Lab, where she conducts studies on the corporate governance of Italian companies.

Her research activities mainly focus on corporate governance, with a particular emphasis on the role of the board of directors, and corporate sustainability.

Francesca is the author of academic articles on these topics, published in several international journals, such as the British Journal of Management, the Journal of Economics and Business, and the International Entrepreneurship and Management Journal. Her research has also been presented at numerous international conferences, including the Academy of Management and the European Academy of Management, among others.

Francesca holds an MSc in Management (Summa Cum Laude and Special Acknowledgement), and a BSc in Economics and Management, both from Luiss Guido Carli University in Rome. She also holds a PhD in Management from the Polytechnic University of Marche, with an additional certification as Doctor Europaeus. Francesca has been a Visiting Researcher at the University of Castilla-La Mancha in Spain and a Visiting Student at the Kozminski University in Poland.
