Biography

Andrea Beltratti is a Full Professor at the Department of Finance at Università Bocconi. From 2004 to 2008, he was the Dean for the undergraduate area, while from 2000 to 2004 he was the Director of the graduate program in Economics (CLE) and of the Bachelor's degree in Economics and Social Sciences (DES) at Università Bocconi. Since 2016, he has been the Academic Director of the Executive Master in Finance.

His research activities focus on four main areas: stock markets, banks, risk and corporate governance. He is the author of several articles on his topics of interest. His works have been published in the Journal of Financial Economics, the Journal of Econometrics, the Journal of Monetary Economics and Oxford Economic Papers, among others. In the early 90s, he coauthored two papers published with Roberto J. Shiller, Nobel Prize winner for Economic Sciences 2013.

He has conducted numerous research, education and consulting projects for some of the leading international business groups operating in the industrial and financial sectors. He has been a Teaching Assistant at Yale University, Visiting Scholar at The London School of Economics and at Melbourne University and a Visiting Professor at Stanford University. He has been President of Eurizon capital since 2012 and, between 2010 and 2012, he was Chairman of the Management Board of Intesa Sanpaolo. He has been a member of the Executive Committee of ABI (The Italian Banking Association), and he currently chairs the Fondazione per l'Educazione Finanziaria (Foundation for Financial Education). Internationally, he is a Board member of EFAMA (European Fund and Asset Management Association) and of the Board of Directors of Al Funds Bank, and President of the BSI Gamma Foundation.

Andrea earned a degree in Economics from the Università di Torino and a Ph.D. in Economics from Yale University.
