Biography

Rachele Anconetani is a Lecturer in the Finance Department at SDA Bocconi School of Management and an adjunct professor for Corporate Finance and Mergers and acquisitions courses at Università Bocconi.

At SDA Bocconi, she has participated in numerous research projects and consultancy work, collaborating with significant private and public institutes, including JP Morgan Private Banking, PwC, Refinitiv, the European Space Agency (ESA), FIS, and Edenred. She is part of the research team for the Best Performance Award and a member of the Scientific Committee of the Corporate Welfare Lab. Since 2019, she has been active in coordinating activities for the Banking & Finance Concentration for the Executive MBA program.

Her research focuses on corporate finance, extraordinary finance, sustainable finance, and corporate welfare. She has also collaborated on significant national and international research projects, delving into corporate sustainability, the food service market, the space economy, and climate change. Her works have been published in journals such as SSRN Electronic Journal, Economia & Management Plus, and Journal of European Real Estate Research, and they are online on SDA Bocconi Insights.

Rachele graduated with honours in Accounting, Financial Management, and Control from Università Bocconi in 2015.
