Biography

Federico Pippo is Senior Lecturer of Corporate Finance and M&A and Director of the Master in Corporate Finance (MCF) at SDA Bocconi School of Management. He is Professor of Corporate Finance at Bocconi University, Bachelor Degree in Economics and Management (CLEAM) and Bachelor Degree in Economics and Finance (CLEF).

At SDA Bocconi, he is MBA Faculty Member where he teaches Corporate Valuation and Merger & Acquisition, MAFED Faculty Member where he teaches Corporate Finance and M&A and EMBA Faculty Member where he teaches Financial Accounting. He is the Learning Director of Corporate Master Programs delivered to Italian and International Companies involved both in the industrial and in the financial industries. At SDA Bocconi, he has also delivered and coordinated executive education and research projects mainly focused on financial statements analysis, capital budgeting, strategic and financial planning, corporate valuation and merger and acquisitions.

Currently, his research activity is focused on Sustainable Finance and, specifically, on the analysis of green bond pricing determinants, and on corporate non-financial performances linked to the ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) Indexes. Recently, he has also analyzed the competitive dynamics and the corporate financial strategies in the luxury market.

He is the author of books and articles on the subject. His works have been published in the SDA Leading Management, in the Journal of Accounting and Organizational Change, in the E&M Journal and in the cleaning house The Case Centre. He is a Chartered Accountant (i.e. Dottore Commercialista) and CPA and he is member of the Finance and Control Commission of the Chartered Accountant Association of Milan. He also acts as advisor of industrial and financial companies and he is also member of the board medium Italian enterprises.

Federico earned a Degree in Business Administration from the Catholic University of Milan, a Doctorate in Business Administration (DBA) and a Master in Business Administration (Full time MBA) from SDA Bocconi School of Management. He is a runner and a sportsman and he is also involved in the coordination of the SDA Bocconi Sport Clubs.
