Corporate Strategy

CHARLES.WILLIAMS@UNIBOCCONI.IT

Biography

Charles Williams is Associate Professor of Corporate Strategy at Bocconi University and SDA Bocconi School of Management.

He has a strong interest in how people, structure, and experience affect the evolution of firms. He has studied how firms adapt their knowledge while expanding abroad, how executive movement through firms affects the likelihood of entering and exiting markets, and how entrepreneurial firms face the challenges of growth.

His research has been published in Management Science and Strategic Management Journal, and he has served on the editorial boards of Strategic Management Journal and Organization Science.

He teaches strategy and entrepreneurship at Bocconi and previously taught at University of Illinois and Duke University. Before earning his Ph.D. at the University of Michigan he worked in journalism and market research.
