

Francesco Bertolini

FELLOW

Sustainability

FRANCESCO.BERTOLINI@UNIBOCCONI.IT

Biography

Francesco Bertolini is a SDA Fellow of Sustainability at SDA Bocconi School of Management.

Francesco has collaborated and collaborates with some of the largest national and international groups such as Lavazza, Ferrero, Asia Pulp and Paper and CNH on the issue of sustainability of production chains, on how to go beyond the concept of sustainability and on new materials and new models of production and consumption linked to the balance of the ecosystem.

In addition, he was and still is a columnist for the major national newspapers including Repubblica, Corriere and Libero. Francesco is a member of the advisory board of Belantara Foundation, President of Brands4Sustainability and Forest for Future and he is on the scientific committee of Ecoscienza.

He is the author of numerous articles on his topics of interest. His works have been published in important magazines such as Sole 24 ore, Economia & Management, The Transnational Lawyer and Arpa Rivista.

Francesco earned a degree in Business Administration from Università Bocconi.

Teaching domains

Corporate Sustainability

Circular Economy

Sustainable Blue Economy

Sustainable Supply Chain

Change Management

RESEARCH MONOGRAPHS

BERTOLINI F., TROILO G.

Green management. L'ecologia come vantaggio competitivo per l'impresa

Egea, Milano, Italy, 1996
